

Literary Festival Rubric: Student Evaluations

Please highlight the level of proficiency or write the letter grade in the first column on the left.

Topic	Poor (D/F)	Acceptable (C)	Accomplished (B)	Outstanding (A)
Subject Knowledge <input type="checkbox"/>	Information is confusing, incorrect, or flawed in accuracy.	Some information is confusing, incorrect, or flawed in accuracy.	Most information is clear, appropriate, and accurate.	All information is clear, appropriate, and accurate.
Project Design/Creative Thought <input type="checkbox"/>	No evidence that higher level thinking skills were used to create a mandatory project.	Little evidence that higher level thinking skills were used to create an acceptable project.	Some evidence that higher level thinking skills were used to create a unique project.	Clear evidence that higher level thinking skills were used to create a unique project.
Use of Enhancements <input type="checkbox"/>	No enhancements are present or use of these tools is inappropriate.	Limited enhancements such as all graphics, video, audio, 3-D and information piece are present but do not always enrich the learning experience.	Enhancements such as all graphics, video, audio, 3-D and information piece are used appropriately to enrich the experience.	Enhancements such as graphics, video, audio, 3-D and information piece contribute significantly to convey the intended meaning.
Presentation Skills <input type="checkbox"/>	Great difficulty communicating ideas.	Some difficulty in communication of ideas, due to voice projection, lack of preparation, or incomplete work.	Communicates ideas with proper voice projection.	Communicates ideas with enthusiasm, voice projection, clear language and delivery.
Interactive <input type="checkbox"/>	Does not involve audience through the presentation.	Involves audience through part of the presentation through games, simulations, and other activities.	Involves audience through most of the presentation through games, simulations, and other activities.	Involves audience in every element of presentation through games, simulations, and other activities.