Benchmark B: Explain how dance is a meaningful expression of culture.

	Date Achieved
5. Analyze the cultural influences on dance in America today.
6. Discuss ways that media genres (e.g., news magazines, televised news, documentaries and arts online sources) cover dance events and performances in contemporary culture.

Benchmark C: Explain ways in which works of dance relate to the themes and issues of their historical, cultural and social contexts.

	Date Achieved
7. Collaborate with others to create original material for a dance that communicates a universal theme or sociopolitical issue.

Creative Expression and Communication

Students create, interpret and perform dances to demonstrate understanding of choreographic principles, processes and structures. They understand how to use dance and movement to express ideas and to make meaning of their world.

Benchmark A: Demonstrate alignment, articulation, strength, flexibility, agility, coordination and focus while dancing.

Date Achieved

1. Perform a complex work by a recognized choreographer and communicate the artist's intent.

--

Benchmark B: As a soloist or with an ensemble, perform a dance that demonstrates expression and clarity and includes a variety of complex movement sequences (e.g., use of space, dynamics, rhythms, pathways and forms).

Date Achieved

2. Collaborate with peers to create original material for a dance.

--

3. As a soloist or as a part of an ensemble, perform dances from a variety of genres (e.g., jazz, ballet and modern) that demonstrate expression, dynamic range and technical accuracy.

--

4. Demonstrate the ability to adapt to and perform two or more different dance styles.

--

Benchmark C: Create a personal work that demonstrates originality, unity, clarity of intent and a dynamic range of movement.

Date Achieved

5. Create a solo dance to demonstrate originality, unity, clarity of intent and a dynamic range of movement.

--

Benchmark D: Review, revise and refine an original dance with attention to the full production value.

Date Achieved

6. Demonstrate the ability to notate, record and preserve selected personal works.

--

Analyzing and Responding

Students express orally and in writing their interpretations and evaluations of dances they observe and perform. They understand and use the vocabulary of art criticism to discuss their responses to a variety of dance forms and styles.

Benchmark A: Synthesize knowledge of all aspects of a dance performance (e.g., dance elements, choreography, performance skills, staging, theatrical elements and sound) to interpret and evaluate dances.

Date Achieved

1. Analyze the way in which the central theme of a dance selection expresses a comment on daily life and use well-chosen details from the dance.

Benchmark B: Analyze and interpret recognized works of dance by a variety of choreographers.

Date Achieved

2. Analyze and interpret the works of selected choreographers based on their use of dance structures, music forms and theatrical elements.

Benchmark C: Use established criteria to assess the effectiveness of dance and theatrical elements in communicating meaning.

Date Achieved

3. Examine and describe how dances they create reflect the themes and issues of contemporary times.

Benchmark D: Critique a dance and justify opinions using a defined set of criteria.

Date Achieved

4. Assess the effectiveness of all aspects of a dance performance and suggest alternative choices or revisions, if necessary.

Valuing the Arts/Aesthetic Reflection

Students inquire about the nature and experience of dance in their lives. They reflect on the significance and value of dances they observe and perform. Students present points of view about dance and respond thoughtfully to others' points of view.

Benchmark A: Write and present personal statements about the meaning and significance of dance experiences (e.g., observing, performing or responding to dance).

Date Achieved

1. Develop a point of view about the significance of their dance experiences and support their viewpoint with well-chosen details.

Benchmark B: Articulate and justify a philosophy of dance and cite sources (e.g., personal experience, professionals in the field and artists' biographies) that contributed to their thinking.

Date Achieved

2. Research and compare a choreographer's philosophy of art with that of a dance educator and explain the similarities in their beliefs.

Connections, Relationships and Applications

Students apply their knowledge of dance to the study of other arts areas and disciplines outside the arts. Students make connections between dance and healthful living.

Benchmark A: Explain common issues, topics and problems that demonstrate the connections between dance, other arts areas and disciplines outside the arts.

Date Achieved

1. Create an interdisciplinary project based on a central topic or issue that uses the methods, elements and structures from dance and one or more other disciplines.

Benchmark B: Explain how the study of dance provides knowledge and skills essential to life, personal health and effective work in various careers.

Date Achieved

2. Identify and explain the skills and dispositions developed in dance that transfer to other fields of study (e.g., imaginative and flexible thinking, teamwork and self-discipline).

3. Research and explain the benefits (e.g., social, cultural and physical) of lifelong involvement in dance.

Benchmark C: Create an individual advocacy statement in support of dance and dance education.

Date Achieved

4. Use multiple resources (e.g., newsletters, professional magazines, interviews with arts administrators or online Web sites) to research how local, state or national professional dance organizations address dance/arts issues related to public policy, research, advocacy and education.

FINE ARTS DETAILED CHECKLIST: VISUAL ART
~GRADE 12~

Historical, Cultural and Social Contexts

Students understand the impact of visual art on the history, culture and society from which it emanates. They understand the cultural, social and political forces that, in turn, shape visual art communication and expression. Students identify the significant contributions of visual artists to cultural heritage. They analyze the historical, cultural, social and political contexts that influence the function and role of visual art in the lives of people.

Benchmark A: Explain how and why visual art forms develop in the contexts (e.g., cultural, social, historical and political) in which they were made.

Date Achieved

1. Understand and apply knowledge of art history in oral and written discussions about selected works of art.

Benchmark B: Compare works of art to one another in terms of the historical, cultural, social and political influences evident in the works.

Date Achieved

2. Identify and compare the relationships between artworks on the basis of history, culture and aesthetic qualities.

Benchmark C: Explain ways in which selected, contemporary works of art relate to the themes, issues and events of their contexts.

Date Achieved

3. Describe the use of technology as a visual art medium using computer-generated examples.

Benchmark D: Select a culture and create an original work of art that demonstrates understanding of a historical, social or political issue of the culture.

Date Achieved

4. Determine the influence of community or cultural values on the choices artists make when creating art.

5. Incorporate knowledge and ideas from art history to produce innovative projects (e.g., independent study, senior portfolio and interdisciplinary projects).

Creative Expression and Communication

Students create artworks that demonstrate understanding of materials, processes, tools, media, techniques and available technology. They understand how to use art elements, principles and images to communicate their ideas in a variety of visual forms.

Benchmark A: Demonstrate mastery of materials, concepts and personal concentration when creating original artworks.

Date Achieved

1. Integrate the elements of art and principles of design using a variety of media to solve specific visual art problems and to convey meaning.
---	--

Benchmark B: Create expressive artworks that demonstrate a sense of purpose and understanding of the relationship among form, materials, techniques and subject matter.

Date Achieved

2. Solve visual art problems that demonstrate skill, imagination and in-depth understanding of media and processes.
---	--

Benchmark C: Engage in ongoing assessment to revise and improve artworks and to produce a portfolio of works.

Date Achieved

3. Prepare a digital portfolio of artworks demonstrating knowledge of technology and its application to visual art.
4. Organize and display their original artworks as part of a public art exhibition.
5. Prepare a portfolio of personal works demonstrating technical skill, a range of media and various original solutions to two- and three-dimensional problems.

Analyzing and Responding

Students identify and discriminate themes, media, subject matter and formal technical and expressive aspects in works of art. They understand and use the vocabulary of art criticism to describe visual features, analyze relationships and interpret meanings in works of art. Students make judgments about the quality of works of art using the appropriate criteria.

Benchmark A: Apply the knowledge and skills of art criticism to conduct in-depth analyses of works of art.

Date Achieved

1. Analyze and interpret the way in which the theme or meaning in an artwork expresses a social, political or cultural comment and use examples from the artwork to support the interpretation.

Benchmark B: Explain how form, subject matter and context contribute to meanings in works of art.

Date Achieved
