4. Share specific examples of how dance functions in the lives of people of different ages and genders including their own.

Benchmark C: Research a recognized contributor to dance (e.g., choreographer, dancer or educator) and trace the development of the individual's work to its historical and cultural influences.

	Date Achieved
5. Research a historically significant choreographer and describe his/her contribution to dance history.

Creative Expression and Communication

Students create, interpret and perform dances to demonstrate understanding of choreographic principles, processes and structures. They understand how to use dance and movement to express ideas and to make meaning of their world.

Benchmark A: Perform basic dance movements, body positions and spatial patterns from one or more dance styles or traditions.

Date Achieved

1. Perform a variety of movement sequences with focus, alignment, balance, coordination and increased strength and flexibility.
2. Create a movement study focused on weight sharing, partnering and contrasting/complimentary shapes.

Benchmark B: Reflect on, evaluate and refine choreographic, rehearsal and performance processes.

Date Achieved

3. Create a movement study that has clear intent, explores dance elements and uses choreographic principles.
--	--

Benchmark C: Perform a full dance that demonstrates artistic expression and performance skill for a peer audience.

Date Achieved

4. Demonstrate and explain how the use of different accompaniment (e.g., sound, music, lighting and text) enhances artistic expression and dance performance.

Analyzing and Responding

Students express orally and in writing their interpretations and evaluations of dances they observe and perform. They understand and use the vocabulary of art criticism to discuss their responses to a variety of dance forms and styles.

Benchmark A: Demonstrate knowledge of different approaches to art criticism when analyzing and interpreting dance performances.

Date Achieved

1. Analyze the relevance of setting to the mood and meaning of a dance performance.
2. Analyze and interpret two dance performances on the basis of their stylistic characteristics.

Benchmark B: Analyze how dance elements are used to convey concepts or themes in dance performances.

Date Achieved

3. Identify and analyze how recurring themes are communicated across traditional and contemporary dance performances.
---	--

Benchmark C: Apply knowledge of dance elements, techniques, styles and choreographic forms to critique dances using defined criteria.

Date Achieved

4. Compare personal responses to a selected dance with those of a dance critic.

Valuing the Arts/Aesthetic Reflection

Students inquire about the nature and experience of dance in their lives. They reflect on the significance and value of dances they observe and perform. Students present points of view about dance and respond thoughtfully to others' points of view.

Benchmark A: Articulate their viewpoints about the merits of selected dances and explain the basis for their views.

Date Achieved

1. Articulate the value of dance as a means of communication for themselves and for others.

Benchmark B: Demonstrate reasoning skills when engaging in inquiry about dance.

Date Achieved

2. Explore questions about the experience of learning to dance.

Connections, Relationships and Applications

Students apply their knowledge of dance to the study of other arts areas and disciplines outside the arts. Students make connections between dance and healthful living.

Benchmark A: Demonstrate the inter-relationship of dance content and skills to those in other academic disciplines.

	Date Achieved
1. Identify and compare similar approaches to the artistic process used across the visual and performing arts disciplines (e.g., creating, performing/producing and responding).
2. Compare the creative process in dance to the creative process in other arts disciplines (e.g., perceiving, responding, creating and communicating).

Benchmark B: Identify and compare how learning strategies (e.g., collaboration, consensus building, decision making, risk taking) acquired in dance are used in dance and non-dance careers.

	Date Achieved
3. Recognize and discuss how participation in dance develops skills that are valuable and applicable to other careers.

Benchmark C: Create and demonstrate correct warm-up activities independently and in a group.

	Date Achieved
4. Use practice, rehearsal and performance skills to demonstrate the proper preparation for exercise or dance.
5. Create a personal warm-up to use before class, rehearsal or a performance.

Creative Expression and Communication

Students create artworks that demonstrate understanding of materials, processes, tools, media, techniques and available technology. They understand how to use art elements, principles and images to communicate their ideas in a variety of visual forms.

Benchmark A: Apply knowledge of materials, tools, media, techniques and processes to communicate subject matter, themes or ideas in a variety of visual forms.

Date Achieved

1. Identify and apply criteria to assess content and craftsmanship in their works.

Benchmark B: Create two- and three-dimensional original artwork that demonstrates personal visual expression and communication.

Date Achieved

2. Demonstrate an enhanced level of craftsmanship in original two- and three-dimensional art products.

Benchmark C: Achieve artistic purpose and communicate intent by selection and use of appropriate media.

Date Achieved

3. Experiment with style and demonstrate how the same subject can be portrayed in different ways (e.g., a self-portrait interpreted in expressionism and through abstraction).

Benchmark D: Use current, available technology to refine an idea and create an original, imaginative work of art.

Date Achieved

4. Demonstrate increased technical skill by using more complex processes to design and create two- and three-dimensional artworks.

Benchmark E: Identify and explain reasons to support artistic decisions in the creation of art work.

Date Achieved

5. Explain and defend their artistic decisions using appropriate visual art vocabulary.

Analyzing and Responding

Students identify and discriminate themes, media, subject matter and formal technical and expressive aspects in works of art. They understand and use the vocabulary of art criticism to describe visual features, analyze relationships and interpret meanings in works of art. Students make judgments about the quality of works of art using the appropriate criteria.

Benchmark A: Apply the strategies of art criticism to describe, analyze and interpret selected works of art.

	Date Achieved
1. Observe a selected work of art and explain how the artist's choice of media relates to the ideas and images in the work.
2. Identify professions that use art criticism (e.g., artist, museum curator, art critic and art appraiser).

Benchmark B: Present and support an individual interpretation of a work of art.

	Date Achieved
3. Explain how personal experience influences their opinions of artworks.

Benchmark C: Establish and use criteria for making judgments about works of art.

	Date Achieved
4. Analyze and discuss qualities in the artwork of peers to better understand the qualities in their own artworks.

Valuing the Arts/Aesthetic Reflection

Students understand why people value visual art. They present their beliefs about the nature and significance of selected artworks and the reasons for holding these beliefs. Students reflect on and respect diverse points of view about artworks and artifacts.

Benchmark A: Demonstrate aesthetic inquiry and reflection skills when participating in discussions about the nature and value of art.

	Date Achieved
1. Recognize how reflection can change beliefs about the nature and value of art.
2. Articulate an understanding of different aesthetic theories (e.g., formal, expressive and contextual) related to viewing and interpreting artworks.

Benchmark B: Analyze diverse points of view about artworks and explain the factors that shape various perspectives.

	Date Achieved
3. Compare their viewpoints about a selected work of art with an art critic's viewpoint of the same work.

Connections, Relationships and Applications

Students connect and apply their learning of visual art to the study of other arts areas and disciplines outside the arts. They understand relationships between and among concepts and ideas that are common across subjects in the curriculum. Students recognize the importance of lifelong learning and experience in visual art.

Benchmark A: Demonstrate the role of visual art in solving an interdisciplinary problem.

Date Achieved

1. Demonstrate different visual forms of representation for the same topic or theme (e.g., expressive, graphic and scientific).

Benchmark B: Apply and combine visual art, research and technology skills to communicate ideas in visual form.

Date Achieved

2. Achieve an effective balance between creating computer-generated images and drawing their own original images.

Benchmark C: Use key concepts, issues and themes to connect visual art to various content areas.

Date Achieved

3. Collaborate (e.g., with peers or a community artist) to create a thematic work that incorporates visual art.

Benchmark D: Use words and images to explain the role of visual art in community and cultural traditions and events.

Date Achieved

4. Identify how aspects of culture influence ritual and social artwork.

5. Explore ways to communicate and support the importance of art in their communities (e.g., become an arts advocate, a volunteer or member of a professional arts organization or patron of the arts).
