SOCIAL STUDIES DETAILED CHECKLIST
~GRADE 12~

History

Students use materials drawn from the diversity of human experience to analyze and interpret significant events, patterns and themes in the history of Ohio, the United States and the world.

Benchmark A: Explain patterns of historical continuity and change by challenging arguments of historical inevitability.

Analysis and Interpretation	Date Achieved
1. Challenge arguments of historical inevitability by giving examples of how different choices could have led to different consequences (e.g., choices made during the Civil War, choices relating to immigration policy, or choices made during the Cuban Missile Crisis).

Benchmark B: Use historical interpretations to explain current issues.

Analysis and Interpretation	Date Achieved
1. Analyze primary source material to see if a historical interpretation is supported.
2. Analyze cause-and-effect relationships and multiple causation including the influence of ideas, the role of chance and individual and collective action.

People in Societies

Students use knowledge of perspectives, practices and products of cultural, ethnic and social groups to analyze the impact of their commonality and diversity within local, national, regional and global settings.

Benchmark A: Analyze how issues may be viewed differently by various cultural groups.

Cultures	Date Achieved
1. Identify the perspectives of diverse cultural groups when analyzing current issues.
2. Analyze proposed solutions to current issues from the perspectives of diverse cultural groups.
Benchmark B: Identify the causes of political, economic and social oppression and analyze ways individuals, organizations and countries respond to resulting conflicts.

Interaction	Date Achieved
1. Analyze ways countries and organizations respond to conflicts between forces of unity and forces of diversity (e.g., English only/bilingual education, theocracies/religious freedom, immigration quotas/open immigration policy, single-sex schools/coeducation).
2. Evaluate the effectiveness of international governmental organizations (e.g., United Nations, European Union, World Court and Organization of American States), multinational corporations, and nongovernmental organizations (e.g., Amnesty International, Red Cross and World Council of Churches) in the global arena.

Benchmark C: Explain the role of diverse cultural institutions in shaping American society.

Diffusion	Date Achieved
1. Evaluate the role of institutions in guiding, transmitting, preserving and changing culture.

Geography

Students use knowledge of geographic locations, patterns and processes to show the interrelationship between the physical environment and human activity, and to explain the interactions that occur in an increasingly interdependent world.

Benchmark A: Explain how the character and meaning of a place reflect a society's economics, politics, social values, ideology and culture.

Places and Regions	Date Achieved
1. Explain how people create places that reflect culture, human needs, government policy, current values and ideals as they design and build specialized buildings, neighborhoods, shopping centers, urban centers and industrial parks.

Benchmark B: Evaluate the consequences of geographic and environmental changes resulting from governmental policies and human modifications to the physical environment.

Human Environmental Interaction	Date Achieved
1. Describe the intended and unintended effects of human modifications to the physical environment and weigh the costs and benefits of alternative approaches to addressing environmental concerns (e.g., alternative sources of energy, mass transportation systems, or farmland and wetland preservation).
2. Analyze policies and programs for natural resource use and management considering possible trade-offs between environmental quality and economic growth.

Benchmark C: Use appropriate data sources and geographic tools to analyze and evaluate public policies.

Application of Geography	Date Achieved
1. Use appropriate data sources and tools to gather, manipulate, interpret and communicate geographic information related to civic/global issues.

Economics

Students use economic reasoning skills and knowledge of major economic concepts, issues and systems in order to make informed choices as producers, consumers, savers, investors, workers and citizens in an interdependent world.

Benchmark A: Analyze how scarcity of productive resources affects supply, demand, inflation and economic choices.

Scarcity and Resource Allocation	Date Achieved
1. Compare how values and beliefs influence economic decisions in different communities.
2. Explain the impact of marginal cost/marginal benefit analysis on decision-making.
3. Select a current issue; identify the costs and benefits of various choices to determine the impact of personal and social economic decisions on the allocation of productive resources.

Benchmark B: Identify factors which inhibit or spur economic growth and cause expansions or recessions.

Production, Distribution and Consumption	Date Achieved
1. Use the circular flow model to explain the flow of money, goods, services and productive resources in the economy.

Benchmark C: Explain how voluntary worldwide trade, specialization and interdependence among countries affect standards of living and economic growth.

Markets	Date Achieved
1. Identify reasons for and the impacts of multinational economic organizations: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries (OPEC); b. European Monetary Union; c. North American Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA); d. World Trade Organization (WTO); e. World Bank.

Benchmark D: Analyze the role of fiscal and regulatory policies in a mixed economy.

Government and the Economy	Date Achieved
1. Analyze economic policy decisions made by governments that have resulted in intended and unintended consequences.
2. Identify public policies that may cost more than the benefits they generate, assess who enjoys the benefits, who bears the cost and explain why the policies exist.

Benchmark E: Explain the use of a budget in making personal economic decisions and planning for the future.

No indicators present for this benchmark.

Government

Students use knowledge of the purposes, structures and processes of political systems at the local, state, national and international levels to understand that people create systems of government as structures of power and authority to provide order, maintain stability and promote the general welfare.

Benchmark A: Evaluate, take and defend positions about issues concerning the alignment of the characteristics of American democracy with realities in the United States today.

Role of Government	Date Achieved
1. Identify and analyze an issue related to domestic or foreign policy in the United States (e.g., human rights, intervention in conflicts between other countries, or health care).
2. Explain how individuals and groups, both governmental and non-governmental, influence domestic and foreign policy and evaluate how these actions reflect characteristics of American democracy.

Benchmark B: Explain how the U.S. Constitution has evolved including its philosophical foundations, amendments and court interpretations.

Rules and Laws	Date Achieved
1. Explain the key arguments made for and against the ratification of the Constitution and illustrate how those arguments influence contemporary political debate.

Benchmark C: Analyze how citizens participate in the election process in the United States.

Systems of Government	Date Achieved
1. Identify and analyze issues related to the election process in the United States (e.g., election board policies, technology used in elections, media reporting of election results).

Citizenship Rights and Responsibilities

Students use knowledge of the rights and responsibilities of citizenship in order to examine and evaluate civic ideals and to participate in community life and the American democratic system.

Benchmark A: Evaluate various means for citizens to take action on a particular issue.

Participation	Date Achieved
1. Practice forms of civic discussion and participation consistent with the ideals of citizens of a democratic republic: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> a. Persuasive speech; b. Panel discussion; c. Debate.
2. Evaluate policies that have been proposed as ways of dealing with social changes resulting from new technologies (e.g., censorship of the media, intellectual property rights, or organ donation).
3. Analyze relationships and tensions between national sovereignty and international accords and organizations (e.g., international agreements on environmental issues, trade agreements, arms agreements, European Union or NATO).
4. Explain and demonstrate knowledge of federal and Ohio freedom of information and open meeting laws.
5. Explain how to file a request for public information using either the appropriate federal or Ohio freedom of information statute.
6. Prepare a plan of action that defines a community issue and suggest alternative solutions or courses of action based on appropriate criteria.
7. Analyze the causes, consequences and possible solutions to persistent, contemporary and emerging world problems (e.g., health, security, resource allocation, economic development or environmental quality).
8. Analyze how democracy, the free flow of information, global economic interdependence, or human rights movements can cause change within a country.

Benchmark B: Explain how the exercise of a citizen's rights and responsibilities helps to strengthen a democracy.

Rights and Responsibilities	Date Achieved
1. Compare elements, proceedings and decisions related to the right to a fair trial in criminal and civil courts and describe alternatives to litigation for maintaining order and resolving conflicts within the U.S. legal system including:

a. Mediation; b. Arbitration; c. Alternative dispute resolution; d. Plea-bargaining.

Social Studies Skills and Methods

Students collect, organize, evaluate and synthesize information from multiple sources to draw logical conclusions. Students communicate this information using appropriate social studies terminology in oral, written or multimedia form and apply what they have learned to societal issues in simulated or real-world settings.

Benchmark A: Obtain and evaluate information from public records and other resources related to a public policy issue.

Obtaining Information	Date Achieved
1. Obtain and evaluate information from public records and other resources related to a public policy issue.

Benchmark B: Critique data and information to determine the adequacy of support for conclusions.

Thinking and Organizing	Date Achieved
1. Construct an action plan for presenting a position to the appropriate decision-making body.
2. Research an issue or topic by gathering, recording, evaluating and interpreting relevant data.

Benchmark C: Develop a research project that identifies the various perspectives on an issue and explain a resolution of that issue.

Communicating Information	Date Achieved
1. Develop a research project and make formal presentations to the class and/or community members using: a. Key terms; b. Support for main ideas; c. Examples; d. Statistics and other evidence; e. Visual aids; f. Formal citation of sources.
2. Respond to questions and feedback about presentations knowledgeably and civilly.

Benchmark D: Work in groups to analyze an issue and make decisions.

Problem Solving	Date Achieved
1. Build consensus within a group by: a. Finding points of agreement; b. Identifying points individuals are willing to concede; c. Making sure that all voices are heard; d. Attempting to understand the view of others.
2. Engage in group work on issues-analysis and decision-making: a. Identify a problem or dilemma; b. Analyze the interests, values and points of view; c. Identify causes of the problem or dilemma; d. Propose alternative solutions; e. Formulate a position or course of action; f. Evaluate the consequences of the action taken.
